COLLECT

Almighty God,

you have made us for yourself,

and our hearts are restless till they find their rest in you:

pour your love into our hearts and draw us to yourself,

and so bring us at last to your heavenly city where we shall see you face to face;

through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord, who is alive and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever.

POST COMMUNION

Lord, we pray that your grace may always precede and follow us, and make us continually to be given to all good works;

through Jesus Christ our Lord.

Welcome! Visitor or local resident,
we hope that you will find something in our worship today
to inspire, comfort or stimulate you.
Please feel free to introduce yourself to the clergy
after the service.
They would love to meet you.

PRAYERS

Gracious God, we pray for our Church as it welcomes Dame Sarah Mullally as the first female Archbishop of Canterbury, that her leadership may sow unity, healing, and renewed faith.

Lord of justice and mercy, we lift before you all communities scarred by religious hatred – especially after the recent arson attack on a mosque – and ask that you would turn hearts from violence and restore peace.

Almighty God, we pray for those who suffer through conflict, especially in Gaza as peace talks resume on the anniversary of violence, and ask that your compassion and justice may prevail.

Merciful God, grant wisdom and humility to our political leaders, that in times when words stir division, they may instead speak truth and foster reconciliation.

Loving Father, we remember those bereaved by the synagogue attack and other acts of violence — enfold them in your comfort, inspire courage, and guide us to be agents of healing.
