READINGS

Numbers 21.4-9

Philippians 2.6-11

John 3.13-17

COLLECT

Almighty God,

who in the passion of your blessed Son

made an instrument of painful death to be for us the means of life and peace:
grant us so to glory in the cross of Christ that we may gladly suffer for his sake;

who is alive and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
one God, now and for ever.

POST COMMUNION

Faithful God,

whose Son bore our sins in his body on the tree
and gave us this sacrament to show forth his death until he comes:
give us grace to glory in the cross of our Lord Jesus Christ,
for he is our salvation, our life and our hope,
who reigns as Lord, now and for ever.

Welcome! Visitor or local resident,
we hope that you will find something in our worship today
to inspire, comfort or stimulate you.
Please feel free to introduce yourself to the clergy
after the service.
They would love to meet you.

PRAYERS

We pray for those struggling with poverty in the UK, especially families relying on food banks and households burdened by rising energy costs: that justice and compassion may bring lasting change.

We pray for the natural world, as protected areas in England decline: that leaders may act urgently to restore and safeguard creation.

We pray for wisdom in international relations, as Britain and China re-open trade talks: that dialogue may be guided by integrity, peace, and the common good.

We pray for our nation's economic life, as decisions are made ahead of the budget: that those in power may govern with fairness, vision, and care for the vulnerable.

We pray for peace in places of global conflict: that reconciliation and hope may overcome hatred and fear.
