Galatians 1.11-16a
Matthew 19.27-end

COLLECT

Almighty God,
who caused the light of the gospel to shine throughout the world through the preaching of your servant Saint Paul:
grant that we who celebrate his wonderful conversion
may follow him in bearing witness to your truth;
through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord, who is alive and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever.

POST COMMUNION

Almighty God,
who on the day of Pentecost sent your Holy Spirit to the apostles
with the wind from heaven and in tongues of flame, filling them with joy and boldness to preach the gospel:
by the power of the same Spirit strengthen us to witness to your truth
and to draw everyone to the fire of your love;
through Jesus Christ our Lord.

Welcome! Visitor or local resident,
we hope that you will find something in our worship today
to inspire, comfort or stimulate you.
Please feel free to introduce yourself to the clergy
after the service.
They would love to meet you.

BANNS READINGS

No Banns to be read this week

PRAYERS

For Iran: Lord, have mercy on the people of Iran enduring violent crackdowns and deep unrest; bring protection, justice, and a peaceful path forward.

For Sudan: Compassionate God, we pray for the millions displaced and suffering in Sudan's continuing war, and we ask You to move world leaders to act swiftly for peace and humanitarian relief.

For Mozambique: Heavenly Father, comfort the families affected by the flooding and heavy rains in Mozambique, protect vulnerable children, and strengthen relief efforts.

For global tensions: God of peace, soften hardened hearts amid rising geopolitical conflicts and trade strife, that nations may choose dialogue and cooperation over division.

For the vulnerable worldwide: Lord, we lift up all those caught in crises — war, displacement, disaster, and hunger — and ask You to surround them with hope, provision, and Your sustaining love.
