COLLECT

O Lord, we beseech you mercifully to hear
the prayers of your people who call upon you;
grant that they may both perceive and know what things they ought to do,
and also may have grace and power faithfully to fulfil them;
through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord, who is alive and reigns with you,
in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
one God, now and for ever.

POST COMMUNION

Almighty God,
you have taught us through your Son that love is the fulfilling of the law:
grant that we may love you with our whole heart and our neighbours as ourselves;
through Jesus Christ our Lord.

Welcome! Visitor or local resident,
we hope that you will find something in our worship today
to inspire, comfort or stimulate you.
Please feel free to introduce yourself to the clergy
after the service.
They would love to meet you.

PRAYERS

Please pray for:

- + wisdom and courage for Dame Sarah Mullally, our new Archbishop;
- + comfort for the grieving, healing for the injured, protection for the rescuers, and hope for all affected by the school collapse in Indonesia;
- + world leaders as they seek ways to challenge and contain hybrid attacks by Russia, and to seek peace and justice for all;
- + those struggling with health issues — the sick in hospital, those waiting for treatment, and all living with long-term illness — may they know your healing and peace;
- + young people who long to go deeper in their relationship with you — that they may find strong faith, good mentors, and the joy of walking daily with Christ;
- + all who are impacted by the outcomes of racial and religious intolerance and hatred – especially the Jewish communities in Manchester.
