READINGS

Luke 14.25-33

COLLECT

Almighty and everlasting God, you are always more ready to hear than we to pray
and to give more than either we desire or deserve:
pour down upon us the abundance of your mercy, forgiving us those things of which our conscience is afraid and giving us those good things which we are not worthy to ask but through the merits and mediation of Jesus Christ your Son our Lord, who is alive and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever.

POST COMMUNION

God of all mercy,
in this Eucharist you have set aside our sins and given us your healing:
grant that we who are made whole in Christ
may bring that healing to this broken world, in the name of Jesus Christ our Lord.

Welcome! Visitor or local resident, we hope that you will find something in our worship today to inspire, comfort or stimulate you.
Please feel free to introduce yourself to the clergy
after the service.
They would love to meet you.

PRAYERS

for the family of Revd. Mark Wilson, giving thanks for his ministry in this benefice, asking for God's comfort, peace, and strength to surround his loved ones in their time of grief.

for peace in our world: for those caught in conflict and violence, especially in Ukraine, the Middle East, and places we name quietly in our hearts. May leaders seek the ways of reconciliation rather than war.

for all refugees and asylum seekers, fleeing war, disaster, or persecution, that they may find safety, welcome, justice, hope, and a place eventually to call home.

for those awaiting medical tests, enduring grueling treatment, or living with pain, that they may know strength, comfort, and healing.

for our ministry team and Church Wardens as they discern how to work together to respond to the spiritual needs of the parish.
